

It is imperative to the spirit of the airwaves to allow XM & other satellite radio broadcasters to continue traffic and weather programming. Let the technology and market forces determine the delivery of programming. A citizen and a voter!